Squibnocket
Original watercolor by John Rice

John Rice illustrates for many of the country's top magazines and book publishers. His work is widely owned by personal collectors, corporations, and not-for-profit organizations. He is particularly accomplished in wildlife art. For many years John has been a generous donor to many organizations including Duck Unlimited and CCA.

This lovely, original 12X19 watercolor shows a surfcaster resting on a large rock at Squibnocket Beach, Martha's Vineyard. The first point leads out to the famous muscle bar, and the far point just visible as a gray line in the distance is the bass stand. This area is among surf casting's most hallowed ground, and over the years has produced some the best striped bass fishing on earth. The painting will be shipped at no extra charge unframed to the winning bidder.
